A farmer who brought a few hundred pounds of sugar to the city Saturday said that the prospects were for a poor sugar season, and he thought there would be but little made.

G. W. Lowrey has rented his residence on Clarke street to E. E. Claver, who takes possession at once. Mr. Lowrey and sister, Miss Kate E. Lowrey, will board at Mr. G. W. Beckwith's.

The upheaval of the frost now makes the country roads very shaky and H. P. Palmer, proprietor of the Hinesburg state, reports the roads between this city and that town almost impassable.

Hon. Chauncy W. Brownell has rented an office in the Vermont investment company's building on College street, and is moving his office effects there from the Mead building on Main street.

Mrs. Theodore F. Edgar of Boston, who has been spending a few weeks in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lane, Jr., and other relatives, returned Saturday morning on the flyer.

The demand for the lively stables for teams Thursday was unprecedented for an April day in the memory of the horsemen. Mr. H. C. Smith said that he could have let 100 teams if he had had them.

The consolidation of the electric light business of the Burlington Gas Light company and Citizens Electric Light and Power company has been effected and ratified by the directors of both corporations.

Dr. F. C. Kinney of Greenboro arrived here Thursday, in company with Mrs. Thompson of that place, who is now at the Fletcher hospital for treatment. Dr. Kinney returned home Friday morning.

L. P. Waite of L. P. Waite & Co. of Newburgh, N. Y., publishers of the Burlington and Winooki directory is in the city making preparations for this year's which will be issued at the usual time.

Gardner Brown, Jr., of Boston, who has been in the city a few days, has leased the store in the Y. M. C. A. block, now occupied by Edward Barlow, and will open a fancy goods and notion store about June 1.

The chorus choir was tried at the First church Sunday for the first time and it was very successful. There are now 13 voices and it is probable that four more will be added before the choir is permanently decided upon.

Mary Howe Lavin will appear here the evening of Memorial day. There was some difficulty in fixing upon a date, but May 30 was finally decided on. She will be supported by her husband and several other noted vocalists.

The Burlington Cotton company hoisted the national flag on the top of their mill and blew the whistle at 6:45 o'clock Monday morning for the first time since the old mill was burning now. There are about 100 looms running now.

Principal H. H. Rose and 30 of the Rock Point students went to Underhill Thursday and spent the day in the sugar orchard of T. H. Porter. It was great sport for the students, and the warm sugar was not a small consideration.

D. D. Howe of Brookfield, who is to have charge of the experiment farm during the coming season, arrived here Thursday, accompanied by Romeo G. McAllister of Westfield, an experienced agriculturist, who will act as Mr. Howe's assistant.

Warren Coudage left the Burlington Business College Monday and went to Plattsburgh, where he will remain until the opening of navigation. He will occupy the position of steward on the Chateaugay, which he has sailed for the past six seasons.

A. G. Peirce, the Chittenden county member of the republican state committee, received a letter from Chairman F. W. Baldwin Tuesday, saying that Hon. Thomas B. Reed would surely be at Montpelier April 18 and address the convention.

Mrs. B. F. Van Vleet, who has been ill for several months, left Thursday in company with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. C. L. Webster, for New York and Atlantic City, hoping that a change of climate will be beneficial. They will be absent a few months at least.

City Treasurer G. D. Waller received congratulations from many friends yesterday upon his unanimous re-election to the above office for the 21st consecutive time.

He is 70 years of age, but he still retains good health and his mental powers are as active as ever.

Dr. Stickney of Middlebury, a medical student, broke a leg while turning some stairs in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Tuesday afternoon. He is a large and heavy man and a prominent candidate for the 100-yard dash in the Intercollegiate Athletic association sports.

William Hamberg, who was employed by Lewis Murr, mysteriously disappeared from his home early in February, and nothing has since been heard from him. Any information as to his whereabouts would be gladly received by his father, William Hamberg, of South Burlington.

Lewis Murr returned from Lynn, Mass., accompanied by Lawyer G. W. Moulton Tuesday morning. The factory at the addition still remains in Sheriff Reeve's possession under the $14,000 attachments and no going into of procedure has been determined upon by Mr. Murr and his attorneys.

School Commissioners A. G. Pierce and C. E. Allen have returned from visiting several school buildings in Boston, Lowell and Worcester with special reference to examining into the most improved heating and ventilating apparatus, before deciding on the system for the new school building.

The Knoxville, Tenn., Tribune had the following notice of a former Burlington ally: The most friendly and able advocate of Miss Mary Noyes, lately as teacher in Miss Ogden's school, will be pleased to learn that she has been called to and has accepted a place in Middlebury, Ky., at an increase of salary.

An examination for the classified civil service was held by the board of examiners for the district of Vermont at the custom house Tuesday. There were seven applicants in attendance. Deputy Collector J. A. Arthur and W. L. Greenleaf of this city and Maurice Walsh of St. Albans composed the board of examiners.

The grass on the hill between Battery and Lake streets caught fire Wednesday afternoon and the blaze had reached quite large proportions Thursday, but the employees of the Welch Maple company, armed with sticks put it out after a hard fight, in which Mr. C. B. Welch was somewhat burned about the hands.

Word was telephoned to this city about 7 p.m. Sunday that the grass at Harvard Park was on fire, endangering the building. An alarm was rung in from box 43, but the company who started to go down turned back on receiving news that the application of a few pails of water had made their services unnecessary.

One of the horses which were imported from England by Dr. Webb and which reached Shubert's Farm a few days ago, is very sick with pneumonia and will probably not recover. Symptoms of the disease were apparent a few days before the animal reached New York. The horse is a thoroughbred hackney and quite valuable.

The ice is rapidly going out of the Winooki river. Some fishermen are anxiously waiting and in the meantime are getting their fishing tackle ready. A week or possibly less time will find the anglers along the banks of the river singly and in squads. They should be mindful of what kind of fish bite, for two excellent fish wardens have been appointed.

The Catholic Young Men's union has definitely determined to give a minstrel entertainment about May 20. The quality of the theatricals given by the union in the past has been excellent and it is expected that the coming exhibition of modern minstrelsy with new and original features, eight men and a chorus of 40 voices, will be ahead of any previous efforts.

The street department had a gang of men cleaning and hauling away the refuse matter which has gathered in the streets during the winter Monday. It is not quite time to begin the street improvement work, but the streets will be cleaned as soon as they are in a fit condition to receive a plenty of ice and snow on some of the streets yet, though it is fast disappearing.

Lewis Murr returned from Lynn Saturday morning on the early train and left on the express for that place Sunday evening. He is undecided what he will do about moving his factory. The attachments by C. W. Scott and Leonard, Goodhue & Co., amounting to $14,000, have been changed considerably and it is possible that the differences may be settled and Mr. Murr remain here.

The funeral services of Rufus Brown, formerly of Jericho, took place Tuesday afternoon from the house of Mrs. J. I. Bliss, officiated, assisted by Rev. Deacon Graves. The bearers were D. C. Barber, H. W. Allen, C. E. Allen and M. W. Adams. The remains were placed in the receiving vault at Lake View cemetery.

Letters received from Mrs. A. R. Lemon and her daughters, Misses Fannie and May Lemon, state that they are enjoying their stay at Los Angeles, Cal., very much and that they are hopeful of the early improvement of Mrs. Fannie, whose health was quite poor when she left Burlington. They are stopping with former Burlingtonians, Charles P. Fritsch and wife, which makes it very pleasant for them.

The Western Union Telegraph company has renewed its lease of its office at the old American House which expires in May. The office will be enlarged and remodeled in metropolitan style. The Central Vermont railroad ticket office will probably remain there also. The telegraph company will occupy the office of the American House used for republican headquarters while the repairs are being made.

It is understood that a special train will be run from Brattleboro to Montpelier to accommodate all the democrats who wish to attend the state convention. As a majority of the democrats in Windham, Windsor and Rutland counties are supposed to be anti-Atkins men, the train is probably not being projected by Mr. Atkins. Things are progressing finely for a mighty interesting time and a good many republicans will want to see the side show if they cannot get into the big tent.

The ice in the lake had so far dissolved yesterday afternoon as to leave nothing but a thin honeycomb crust which the wind and powerful south wind was rapidly breaking up. Accountant D. G. Loomis of the Champlain Transportation company said that the steamer Chateaugay would not be taken out of the harbor or begin her regular trips to Plattsburgh before Monday next. A telegram received from the company's office in Plattsburgh brought the cheerful information that the ice inside the breaker at that place was very poor. Nature so formed the harbor there that nothing but a south wind will affect the ice, delaying transportation on the lake nearly every year. The despatch, however, infers that this year will be an exception.

C. R. Hayward Appeals from the Commissioners' Decision—The Opening Delayed.

C. R. Hayward has taken an appeal from the decision of the street commissioners in the matter of the extension of Pine street. He thinks the assessment too large. This renders null all the commissioners have accomplished. The case will now be taken to the district court where commissioners will be appointed and the work will be done over again. It will delay the opening of the street for a long time, possibly for a year. The street commissioners labored incessantly to conciliate all concerned and at the same time make what seemed to them a fair adjustment.

IN POLICE CIRCLES.

Alfred Deferge of Colchester was arrested Wednesday the 30th by Officer DeGraff on a complaint issued by the State's attorney, charging him with intoxication. He was taken before the City Court, where he pleaded a plea of guilty and was fined $5 with costs. Mr. Flint appeared for the State.

Deferge disclosed on John Mercer, who was arrested and escorted into court by Officer DeGraff. He pleaded not guilty and the case was continued till Friday morning, when he was taken before the City Court, where he was fined $10 with costs.

The hearing in the civil case of Annie Duran vs. C. W. Brown for unpaid salary was completed before the City Court Friday and the prison was discharged. Mr. Brown is an aged gentleman and the evidence was quite conflicting.

The seizure case against Eugene Bacon for having on hand with him to sell and for having before Judge Peck Tuesday, he pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs, making $16.50.

A BUSINESS CHANGE.

Barber & Tobey, the Successors to McKillip, Flynn & Barber.

The firm of McKillip, Flynn & Barber has been dissolved by mutual consent. W. B. McKillip and J. F. Flynn retiring. The business will be carried on by C. A. Barber and G. E. Tobey, who has purchased an interest in the firm from Mr. McKillip. Mr. Barber, as one of the old firm, has proven himself to be a business man and every sense of the word, and is now president of the Grocers' and Meatmen's association. Mr. Tobey was formerly of Winooki; is a gentleman of integrity, and is known by many of our citizens. He will be welcomed to the business circles of the city and the new firm will endeavor to fully sustain the reputation gained by their predecessors.
